

Dear Families,

It's hard to believe that we are now only two weeks away from the end of term! It's been a busy week and one where we have been very busy here planning for next year. On Monday we enjoyed the Key Stage 2 Sports Day - what a super afternoon! Thank you for the messages you left on Facebook or emailed in to share your appreciation. The comments you shared talked about how inclusive and enjoyable it was! For me, I saw us living out some of our core values - especially teamwork, achievement, friendship and aspiration. There was of course Mrs Carter's creativity there too as she, as our PE and Sports Lead, brought some changes and new events - we loved it! I loved the balance of fun and competition with teamwork and individual success. I feel it's important to, through things like PE and our Sports Days, to have a sense of teamwork as well as a healthy approach to winning and losing - all important life skills which I feel we add through the richness of our curriculum.

This week I have talked with pupils about the changes ahead. As I prepare to leave at the end of term, I know how lots of pupils and families will be feeling. Feelings of anxiety, excitement, the unknown, thankfulness and reflection. My message to them has been to talk about how we feel. Talking really does help and it's helped me in recent weeks as I prepare to take on a new role, leave everything as I want to, reflect on the things I won't be part of and people I won't see whilst of like everyone else dealing with 'non-school' stuff too which for me is getting ready for my wedding in the summer. It's a busy time for us all and that's why I will reiterate again the importance of pausing, connecting with ourselves and others and talking.

Enjoy the weekend and I look forward to seeing lots of you at the Summer Fete on Saturday!

Parentpay

As we approach the end of the school year any outstanding balances for trips, school lunches and wraparound care on Parentpay need to be cleared. Outstanding balance reminders will be sent out today.

Chartwells Price Increase

There will be an increase in the price of our school meals provided to us by Chartwell the meal served to your child will now be £ 2.65 effective from 1st September 2023.

Children in EYFS, Year 1 and Year 2 will continue to receive free school meals under the Government's universal free school meal scheme.

Please note on Friday 21st July there will be chicken dippers instead of the usual Friday fish fingers.

Whole School Picnic

On Thursday 20th July we are having a whole school picnic to celebrate the end of term. Please note that there will be no hot meals served by the kitchen on this day however a choice of a Picnic lunch will be available to choose on Parentpay. Please make your selection by Wednesday 12th July.

8th July - 9th September 2023

Summer Reading Challenge

Falmouth library are holding their annual Summer Reading Challenge and in addition to the usual Summer Reading Challenge activities, they are running a 'Design a Bookmark' Competition forms can be obtained from the library, or an entry form can be requested by emailing falmouth.library@liscornwall.org.uk.

Library Books

Please could all loans be returned to the library next week as we always collect books in before the long holidays. If any child would like to borrow books over the summer, please ask them to come and find me during the last week of term.

Many thanks, Mrs Seager

Year Group	Looking forward to the week ahead (week beginning Mon 10th July) ...
Reception	We will be learning about Pirates.
Year 1	As authors, we are looking forward to writing our own alternative traditional tales.
Year 2	As authors, we will be writing our own stories set in another culture, based on our story from Brazil.
Year 3	As historians, we can't wait to learn all about the Roman army and then recreate the battle of Watling Street against the Iceni warriors.
Year 4	As authors, we are looking forward to retelling the story of A Mid Summer's Night Dream.
Year 5	As designers, we are looking forward to creating our mining scenario using cams.
Year 6	As authors we will be continuing to discuss how writers use language to create tension through the reading of our class novel 'The Girl of Ink and Stars'.

News From the PTA

It's all happening tomorrow at the Summer Fair! We hope you can make it, but if not, you can still support the event by bringing in baked good donations at pick-up today or purchasing your Raffle tickets online by 9pm tonight. We have about 13 fantastic, high-value prizes, and tickets are £2 for a strip of 5 tickets. Please remember to put "raffle" and your name and email address in the memo field, and tick the "friends and family" box so that we avoid losing out to fees. We will follow up with your raffle numbers by email. Any online purchases after 9pm will NOT be processed, but you can still purchase raffle tickets at the Fair until 12.30pm, ahead of the 1pm prize draw. Winners not in attendance will be contacted by email. Check us out on Facebook or Instagram to see pics of some of the lovely prizes on offer, plus pics from our Makers' Market.

The Summer Fair is free entry and open to all, but the red tickets we've been selling are for using at the many games and prize stalls and the PTA-run food/drink tables, saving you queuing on the day. If you haven't yet brought in your Lucky Dip Bags, you can do so when you arrive at the fair (the earlier the better). We'd also be grateful for donations of baked goods at the Fair. If you'd like to lend a hand, please reach out to us ASAP – we could use a few more helpers!

The End-of-Year Party is also shaping up to be a great event, with loads of options for all types of partygoers. Princess Pavilions have kindly given us the space for free, which is so kind of them. We've made ticket costs on a sliding scale to suit all budgets, and currently have 7 Pay It Forward tickets to be claimed by anyone unable to afford a ticket. Reach out to us if you'd like to have one. Chill out with friends, have a drink from the bar/café, indulge at the tuck shop, enjoy short bits of movable theatre performance or get your boogie on during the second half of the party in the theatre space. We'll have a few pop-up sales for the party at pick-up next week, if you want to avoid Eventbrite fees. Thanks for your support!
